

Do you know someone who is campaigning against antisemitism and for education about the Holocaust?
This commitment should be recognised!

Individuals or groups from Austria and abroad can be nominated or apply for the Simon-Wiesenthal-Prize.

The prize is endowed annually with a total of € 30,000 and is awarded in the following categories:

Civil society commitment against antisemitism

€ 7,500

Civil society commitment to education about the Holocaust

€ 7,500

Main Prize

€ 15,000

Special consideration will be given to projects, initiatives and achievements, that

- ◆ create fresh impetus and place new accents.
- ◆ set an example for others.
- ◆ have a lasting impact on the present and the future.

You can find further information on the prize, the conditions of participation as well as the application form at:

www.wiesenthalprize.at

Applications are open until September 15, 2022 at www.wiesenthalprize.at